This well positioned property is in a secure park on the N3 Information and history -The Westmead circuit was known for its high-speed straights and challenging corners, and it was a popular venue for motorsport events in the 1960s and 1970s. However, the circuit was closed in the late 1970s due to safety concerns and the increasing development of the surrounding industrial area. Today, the former circuit is largely forgotten, and the area is now home to a number of industrial and commercial businesses.
